APPENDIX G

International Aural Radiobroadcasting Services of the Soviet Orbit. 1/

Appendix G lists the international aural radiobroadcasting programs of the Soviet Orbit by country. All schedules are listed in Greenwich Mean Time (G.M.T.), which is equal to E.S.T. plus five hours. The 24 hour clock is used throughout. All frequencies are listed in kilocycles (kcs.).

The location of each radiobroadcasting station or network and the area of its intended listening audience is indicated by the line in bold type heading each schedule. Whether this is an announced (including published) or assumed fact is indicated by the "direction" line following each schedule.

The term "controlled by" refers to the government, organization, or individual ultimately responsible for the programming policy of the station or network, according to the best available information.

SINCE PROGRAM SCHEDULES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE BY THE ORIGINATING STATION AT ANY TIME, THE PROGRAMS LISTED ARE INDIVIDUALLY DATED AND ARE NOT NECESSARILY CURRENT. IN MOST CASES WHERE THE EXACT PROGRAMS AND TIMINGS NO LONGER APPLY, THE STRUCTURE AND CONTENT OF THE LISTED SCHEDULE IS USUALLY INDICATIVE OF THE TYPICAL OUTPUT OF THE STATION OR NETWORK IN QUESTION.

The language of all non-musical programs is specified after each such program and is separated from it by a dash. When no language appears to be listed, a blanket designation will be found heading the program column.

A tabulation showing particulars of program schedules of the Soviet Orbit by country follows:

1/ CIA FBIS, Program Schedules of Foreign Broadcasting Stations, 15 January 1953, R, Eval. RR 2.

a/ Includes some of the various dialects of Chinese.

b/ Includes time consumed handling relays from other countries (principally Moscow).
See footnote g/

c/ Not all programs are on a seven day basis.

d/ While East Germany does not (presumably) have an international radiobroadcasting service as such, it does broadcast certain programs for West German consumption on its home services.

e/ Presumably East Austria does not have an international radiobroadcasting service as such, but home service broadcasts are probably heard in other parts of Austria or neighboring countries because of their proximity.

f/ In some schedules, music and entertainment programs are omitted whereas in others, only significant programs are noted.
